

Carl Topilow's "The Greatest Generation"

A Salute to the Men and Women of WW II

● A very special evening saluting "The Greatest Generation" with traditional music, music of the era, and some of the best film music ever written. If you don't know the amazing story of Ward's "Jubilation Overture" (sketched in a foxhole under fire in the Pacific Theater) just ask.

The Star-Spangled Banner

Richard Rodgers

Robert Ward

Hans Zimmer; arr. Jay Bocook

William Walton

Alain Boublil and Claude Michel Schönberg
with vocal soloist

John Williams

John Williams

Jerry Goldsmith, arr. John Tatgenhorst

Victory at Sea

Jubilation Overture

Pearl Harbor

March from The Battle of Britain

Bring Him Home from Les Miserables

Hymn to the Fallen from Saving Private Ryan

March from Midway

March from Patton

Intermission

Jack Pettis, Billy Meyers and Elmer Schoebel
arr. Ferguson

Carl Topilow, clarinet

Bruce Broughton

John Williams

Traditional, arr. James A. Beckel, Jr.

Lee Greenwood, arr. Bob Lowden

with vocal soloist

arr. Lowden

arr. Hayman

Sousa

Bugle Call Rag

A Tribute to Glenn Miller

American Hero

March from the movie "1941"

Amazing Grace

God Bless the USA

Armed Forces Medley

Sing Out America

Stars and Stripes

Encore:

God Bless America

Contact: Stanton Management, New York 620-563-7312